The screenshot shows the Red Hat Customer Portal interface. At the top, there is a dark navigation bar with the Red Hat logo and the text "Red Hat Customer Portal". To the right of the logo, there are links for "Products & Services", "Tools", "Security", and "Community". Below the navigation bar, the main content area has a heading "Red Hat Terms and Conditions". Under this heading, there is a paragraph of text explaining the need to review and agree to the terms. Below the paragraph, there is a section titled "Enterprise Agreement -United States (English)" with links for "View" and "Download". Under this section, there is a link for "Change agreement's location and language". Below that, there is a checkbox labeled "I have read and agree to the terms." which is checked. At the bottom of the form, there are two buttons: "Submit" and "Cancel".

Red Hat Terms and Conditions

In order to gain access to or use a Red Hat program and/or product, you must review and agree to all of the agreement(s) below. If you, or the company you represent, have a negotiated and executed agreement that is currently in effect with Red Hat that covers the same program(s) and product(s) covered below, your acceptance of these agreement(s) will not override your existing negotiated agreement(s) with Red Hat.
